

Remembrance Day Ceremony 2019

In partnership with Nedlands RSL, the City of Nedlands will be holding a Remembrance Day Ceremony from 10.30am-11.30am on Monday 11 November at Perth War Cemetery, Smyth Rd, Nedlands. Light refreshments will be provided after the service. For more information, please contact Community Development on 9273 3500.

Welcoming our new Mayor and Councillors

The City is pleased to welcome our newly elected Mayor Cilla de Lacy and Councillors Fergus Bennett, Rajah Senathirajah and Rebecca Coghlan, along with re-elected Councillors Leo McManus, Andrew Mangano and John Wetherall who were all sworn into Council last week.

Big thanks go to outgoing Mayor Max Hipkins, who is stepping down after eight years in the role, and Councillors Ian Argyle, Nigel Shaw and Toni James who have collectively contributed 32 years to the residents of Nedlands.

AILA Award win for Jo Wheatley All Abilities Play Space

The Jo Wheatley All Abilities Play Space has won a coveted national architecture award in the 'Play Spaces' Category of the 2019 Australian Institute of Landscape Architects (AILA) Awards. Landscape Architect Fiona Robbé of Architects of Arcadia accepted the award on behalf of the project partners, stating the win as a tribute to the City's visionary approach and ability to work collaboratively with all stakeholders. The Play Space is located at Beaton Park on the Nedlands Foreshore and is open from 8am-8.30pm, seven days a week.
