

NOVEMBER 2021

Nedlands News

Nedlands Positive Ageing Program info session for seniors

'Improve your memory with Ben Colman'

This session proves you don't have to be a genius to improve your memory. Come along to our free, fun, interactive seminar and learn simple memory tools to help you remember names, faces times and places or maybe just where you parked the car.

12 November, 2021: 1.30pm – 2.30pm
Mt Claremont Library.
Inquiries call 9386 6170
or email positiveageing@nedlands.wa.gov.au

Remembrance Day Service 2021

Thursday 11 November 2021
10.30am – 11.30am
Perth War Cemetery
Smyth Road, Nedlands

Following the Local Government elections of 16 October 2021, the City welcomes new Councillors Hengameh Amiry (Coastal Ward), Blane Brackenridge (Melvista Ward) and Olinka Combes (Hollywood), and congratulates Councillors Hodsdon, Smyth and Youngman on their re-election to Council.

The City also acknowledges Bronwyn Tyson and Nikola Horley for their contributions to the City, particularly Ms Horley who has served on Council for more than 20 years.

We would also like to thank all residents who voted in this election for your time and your interest in your local government.

With a comprehensive induction process currently underway, the new cohort of Councillors will be well prepared for their first council meeting on 23 November 2021.

HAVE YOUR SAY - Hampden Hollywood Open House and Survey

The City is currently developing a design response for the Hampden Hollywood Precinct and is seeking your feedback on:

- The overall vision of the Precinct
 - Future development within the Mixed Use and Residential areas of the Precinct
- You can provide your feedback via the online survey from 5 to 19 November 2021 at yourvoice.nedlands.wa.gov.au and by attending the Open House at Hollywood Subiaco Bowling Club, Smyth Road on Monday 8 November from 5pm to 7pm.

HAMPDEN HOLLYWOOD PRECINCT SURVEY & OPEN HOUSE

Survey - Live on Your Voice
5 - 19 November 2021

Open House - Hollywood Subiaco Bowling Club
Monday 8 November 2021, 5 - 7pm
(Please RSVP via Your Voice)

Have your say - Street trees policy review

The City is currently reviewing its' 2021 Draft Street Trees Policy including the Approved Street Trees Species List, and we'd like to hear your opinion.

Please visit yourvoice.nedlands.wa.gov.au for details of the Policy and to add your comments. This survey will be open from 9 November until 5pm, 3 December 2021.

Upcoming Events:

Tresillian Art Exhibition – 15 Nov to 10 Dec, House Boat Exhibition by award-winning artists Elmarie Steyn and Shelley Cowper

Join our 'Facebook Group for Seniors' and you'll never miss an invitation.

BMX Workshop – 21 Nov 12pm - 3pm College Park Pump Track

Kids Day Out – 28 Nov 9am -12pm All Abilities Playspace, Dalkeith

Spring is snake season

Warm Spring weather brings snakes out of hibernation searching for food. If you're walking along the beach or in bushland areas please be alert and keep your dog on leash. If you see a snake, take care and move away from it. If you notice a snake inside your own property please call 9273 3500 and a Ranger will assist you.

Council and Committee Meetings – November 2021

The following meetings will be held in the Council Chamber, 71 Stirling Highway, Nedlands and accessible via livestreaming at:

www.nedlands.wa.gov.au/livestreaming-council-committee-meetings

Members of the public can participate via question and submission forms available on the City's website. If physical entry is permitted, registration via the SafeWA app or manual contact register is required by WA Health. Please see our website for agenda details and any other COVID restrictions that may apply to this meeting and all meetings held during November 2021.

Council Committee Meeting – 7pm, Tuesday 9 November 2021
Council Meeting – 7pm, Tuesday 23 November 2021
Audit and Risk Committee – 5.00pm, Monday 8 November 2021

Poetry winners take a bow

At a presentation event held at the Mt Claremont Library, Miss Poppy Bell from PLC was named Overall Winner of the 2021 Roland Leach Biennial Poetry Prize for her poem 'Shoelaces'.

Now in its eighth year, the competition attracted a record 540 entries from 69 schools across the State. There were prizes for First, Second, Third and Highly Commended in each of the four Category with first prizes to Liesl Ho, Justicio Ksatrianto, Thalia Therese Kurniawan and Poppy Bell. For details of all the winners, please see the City's website.

November 2021 – Works Program

Road Rehabilitation and Maintenance

- Mooro Drive due to commence over the Christmas break finishing in February.
- Melvista oval car park (JC Smith Pavilion) is as above.
- Pine Tree Lane and Lovelia Street to commence next week for completion by Christmas.

Parks and Reserves

- Playground Soft Fall sand being mechanically cleaned during November
- Shade Sails reinstated
- Winter sports goals and cricket wicket mats have been removed for Summer sports.
- Carrington Park dog exercise area being returfed. Will be closed two sections at a time.

Completed

- Sports field turf renovations.
- Parks and Reserves Broad Leaf Weed Treatment program has been completed for another year.