

SEPTEMBER 2020

Nedlands News

What does 'neighbourhood character' mean to you?

What do you love about the City of Nedlands? If you're a local resident, local business owner or ratepayer, we'd love to hear what you believe contributes to the desirable 'character' of your neighbourhood. Please visit yourvoice.nedlands.wa.gov.au, click on Transition Zones – Planning for the Future and complete our survey before 5pm 2 October 2020.

City Photography Award winners announced

Congratulations to the winners of the City of Nedlands Emerge: Youth Photography Awards 2020:

- Ryan Ausden, Overall winner
- Maksim Pavic, Residents category
- Jason Wong, Open category
- Nicholas Warrand, Phone camera category winner
- Benjamin Mitchell, Under 18 winner, (photo shown above).

See our celebratory video at nedlands.wa.gov.au for all of this year's entries.

Pick your play at New Court Gardens

The City is inviting residents in and around Mt Claremont to provide feedback on three styles of play equipment being considered for the New Court Gardens playground upgrade.

A choice of Traditional Play, Nature Mixed Play or Nature Play is available, so please take this opportunity to view the options and let us know your preference.

Visit yourvoice.nedlands.wa.gov.au to have your say before 5pm 11 September 2020.

Works program - September 2020

- Bishop Road Reserve: extending asphalt foreshore accessway to new concrete footpath and irrigation upgrade.
- David Cruickshank Reserve: new turf irrigation station for Jutland Parade, garden kerbing and nature path in the eco-zone.
- Allen Park: upgrading bore pump and headworks.
- Peace Memorial Rose Gardens: upgrading groundwater borehole, pump and headworks.
- Charles Court Reserve: replacing and upgrading decorative fencing around skate park.
- Point Resolution Reserve: upgrading drink fountain.
- Footpath rehabilitation in Bruce Street.

New Councillor for Dalkeith – Noel Youngman

Congratulations to Noel Youngman on his election to the City of Nedlands Council, announced on Friday, 28 August. A swearing-in ceremony was held on 1 September and Cr Youngman took up his position immediately. For more details on the City's newest Councillor, see our website.

Springtime is snake time

In warmer weather, snakes get active. Take care when visiting beaches and bushland and consider keeping your dog on lead while in these areas.

If you see a snake at home, call Ranger Services on 9273 3500 or WILDCARE on 9474 9055. Stay safe - do not approach the snake, keep pets away, and watch it from a safe distance.

New Local Planning Policy - removal of occupancy restrictions

City of Nedlands landowners can now apply to remove notifications that restrict occupancy for Over 55's Accommodation and Ancillary Dwellings, from land titles. Notification removal involves submitting a Development Application to the City.

The new Local Planning Policy – Occupancy Restrictions, is now available via the City's website. Copies can also be viewed at the City's Administration Office and the Nedlands Library.

Council and Committee meetings

All Council and Committee meetings continue to be held online and community attendance is via livestream. Public may participate via question and submission forms available on the City's website. Please check our website for agenda and meeting location details.

Council Committee Meeting – 6.00pm, Tuesday 8 September 2020
Special Council Meeting – 5.30pm, Tuesday 15 September 2020
Ordinary Council Meeting – 6.00pm, Tuesday 22 September 2020
Special Council Meeting – 6.00pm, Tuesday 29 September 2020
Arts Committee Meeting – 5.30pm, Monday 12 October 2020

