Mayoral election – voting closes 18 June

The City of Nedlands is encouraging eligible voters to have their say in the Mayoral election closing at 5pm Friday, 18 June 2021.

Candidates Noel Youngman, Leo McManus and Fiona Argyle are contesting the position following the resignation of Ms Cilla de Lacy. Voting forms have been posted to all households. If you have not received yours by 8 June, please contact the City on 9273 3500.

Tresillian reflects on the brilliance of colour

Myra Staffa, artist, glassmaker, ceramicist and tutor is currently showing her vibrant solo exhibition at Tresillian Arts Centre, Nedlands. Myra's work is inspired by nature, landscape, objects, architecture, and travel and her brightly coloured paintings are a joy to behold. Tresillian is open Monday to Friday 9-4, Sunday 10-12.30 until 25 June.

Positive Ageing – join the Affinity Club

Don't stay home in the cold, why not try Zumba dancing, Pilates or a game of Mah-Jong? The Nedlands Affinity Club calendar of activities in June is now available on our website. Come and meet like-minded seniors for health-enhancing activities every day in the week. All COVID-19 protocols are in place to keep you happy and healthy. Call 9273 3500 for more details.

Are you a poet and you know it?

The Roland Leach Poetry Prize 2021 is open to poets from primary year three to upper secondary year 12, anywhere in the State. Entries open on 6 June and close at 5pm Sunday 15 August 2021. For entry details, see the City's website at nedlands.wa.gov.au.

Do you live in the Stirling Highway corridor?

The City is seeking expressions of interest from residents of this area to be part of the Stirling Highway Activity Corridor Reference Group (SRG).

Following input from the SRG, this project will establish a vision and modify the planning framework to achieve a desired future character for the Stirling Highway Corridor.

To lodge your Expression of Interest, please visit yourvoice.nedlands.wa.gov.au/srg-nominations by 5pm Friday 18 June 2021.
