Nedlands News

Would you like 'a new free street tree'?

As the weather cools, the City is looking to plant new trees on verges and nature strips, free of charge. If you would like a new street tree, please let us know as soon as possible. Call the City on 9273 3500

Swanbourne Oval Greenway gets Coastwest Grant

The City of Nedlands, in partnership with Friends of Allen Park, Swanbourne Coastal Alliance and WA Planning Commission's Coastwest Grants Program, is increasing the ecological integrity of the coastal bushland corridor north and south to Cambridge and Cottesloe.

Weed control is commencing in preparation for 4,500 local provenance species being planted. This project will help increase habitat and improve ecological corridors.

Dogs + lawnmowers = trouble

For the safety of everyone concerned, the City requests dog owners please keep their pets away from lawnmowing equipment being used in parks and reserves. Thank you.

Would you like an art studio of your own?

The City is calling for expressions of interest from parties wishing to secure a studio tenancy at the much sought after Tresillian Arts Centre. Successful applicants are required to enter into a lease agreement for the studio and attend a briefing/site inspection on Wednesday, 7 April 2021 at 10.00am.

For further information, please contact Bill Byrne on 9273 3500 or email bbyrne@nedlands.wa.gov.au.
