Footpaths and laneway obstructions

Residents are responsible for ensuring vegetation located on private property, or any plants on their verge (other than street trees), does not grow to cause obstruction to a footpath or laneway.

Where the City observes plants or trees are causing obstruction, the resident will receive notice to prune the vegetation away from the footpath or laneway. Failure to remove the obstructing vegetation may lead to the City issuing an infringement.

Volunteer - give a little, change a lot

Are you interested in volunteering? The Nedlands Volunteer Resource Centre, located upstairs in the Nedlands Library, is a local one-stop shop offering free, friendly information, details on volunteer positions and help with finding suitable roles.

The centre also provides a pop-up volunteering information service at The Grove Library 12pm-3pm Mondays, Claremont Library and Community Hub 10am-1pm Fridays and Subiaco Library 10.30am-1.30pm Wednesdays. For more details, contact Robyn Forrest on 9273 3640 or volunteering@nedlands.wa.gov.au.
