Volunteer and make a difference

The City of Nedlands is currently seeking people to volunteer in the following roles:

- Book Club Facilitator
- French Conversation Group Facilitator (basic and advance groups)
- Italian Conversation Group Facilitator
- Youth Advisory Council Members
- Volunteer Community Driver

Please contact Amy Beatty, Volunteer Services Officer on 9273 3641 or abeatty@nedlands.wa.gov.au for further information.

Possums

Do you hear noises in your roof at night and think you may have rats that need to be controlled? Be careful, you could mistakenly kill a native possum that is protected under State and Federal legislation. If you have a possum on your property that you wish to remove please contact a licenced contractor. If you find a sick or injured possum contact the Wildcare Helpline on (08) 9474 9055.

Dogs on leads

The City of Nedlands' Rangers are noticing an increase in dogs being walked off lead. In response to an increasing number of incidents, Rangers will be increasing their patrols. More information about dog exercise areas where dogs are permitted to be off lead is available on the City's website or by contacting Ranger Services on 9273 3500.

Please don't pick the roses!

The Peace Memorial Rose Garden commemorates the men and women of this state who served in WW2. The City has received advice that people have been taking the roses from the garden and would like to remind that this is an offence under the City of Nedlands Local Law and penalties of up to $500 apply.
